

SMALL IS BEAUTIFUL

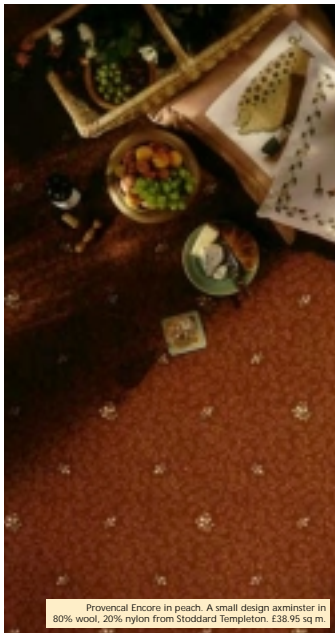

The carpet maker's craft is never more evident than in weaving the intricate and precise patterns of a traditional axminster or wilton. Roundels, checks, lozenges, plaids, diamonds and even Fleur-de-Lys are now regularly appearing in the carpet designer's portfolio. Matched with a Greek Key or Adam Scroll border, they are opening up new interior design possibilities for even the most modest suburban semi.

Seascape Fawn from Berkeley Variations by Carpets of Worth. A small motif axminster in 80% wool, 20% nylon. Available in four colour options. £34.99 sq m.

Zambest wilton in a choice of six designs in black and tan colourways. A Wools of New Zealand quality by Sans Frontières. £55 sq m.

Provençal Encore in peach. A small design axminster in 80% wool, 20% nylon from Stoddard Templeton. £38.95 sq m.

Palace Galleria, a new axminster range from Brintons, comes in two designs with matching borders. The large diamond design and border are available in 13 colourways while the smaller scale jewel design in seven. Combine all three to create unique design effects. The border makes an ideal stair runner. Woven in luxurious 80% wool, 20% pile yarns it is suitable for the hardest wear areas. £47.50 sq m

